

Professional Development
Luncheon Series

Attention: Sales Professionals

- Have you ever had the best product... but still could not close the deal?
- Have you ever had the most comprehensive solution... but still lost to the competition?
- Have you ever been able to offer world-class service & support... only to be told that you were too expensive?

Something is missing that is preventing you from achieving your true growth potential.

Here's your chance to sharpen your Consultative Selling skills & confidence and interact with the leaders of the San Joaquin County business community.

You are invited to a very special luncheon presentation given by Stephen Richardson, Vice President – Western Operations Growth Development Associates, Inc. (GDA).
(Sponsored by the Stockton Women's Network)
